Private Music Lessons for the Preparatory Division (Non-University Students)

Private instrumental and vocal lessons are available for non-University students of all ages and levels of advancement through the University of Mount Union Preparatory Division. All information about Preparatory Division policies, fees, and registration is available at the Visual and Performing Arts office in Cope Music Hall. Payment for lessons can be made at the Preparatory Division office (room 112).

Lessons are arranged at a time mutually convenient to the teacher and student. No lessons may be given in the Preparatory Division until registration is completed. Payment is made for the entire semester, or in two installments.

Preparatory Division faculty includes full-time and adjunct music faculty from the Department of Music and student intern teachers from the Department of Music. Student teachers are supervised by the director of the Preparatory Division.

Lessons will not be made up except in the event of extended illness. No tuition refund will be given for unexcused absence from lessons. Preparatory Division lessons must be completed within the semester for which the registration and payment are made
